386.

By the Queene.

WHereas diuers traiterous and slanderous Libels haue of late beene dispersed in diuers parts of our Citie of London, and places neere thereunto adioyning, by some lewde and vngodly persons, tending to the slander of our Royal person and State, and stirring vp of rebellion and sedition within this our Realme: And to the end such wicked persons may be discouered and knowen:

These shalbe to signifie to all maner of person and persons, That whosoeuer shall in any sort, either openly or secretly, discouer and make knowen to any of the Lordes or others of our priuie Counsaile, or to the Lord Maior of our said Citie, the name of any of the Authors, Writers, or dispersers of any of the sayd Libels, whereby the offendors therein may be knowen and taken, shall presently haue and receiue for their paines therein, the summe of one hundred pounds of currant money payed and deliuered vnto him by the Lord Maior of our sayd Citie.

Giuen at our Palace of whitehall at Westminster the fifth of April 1601. And in the three and fortieth yeere of our raigne.

God saue the Queene.

Imprinted at London by Robert Barker, printer to the Queenes most excellent Maiestie.

1601.